

I understand that we have to have two qualified (or suitably trained / competent) table officials who will be able to officiate at all our home games. the club must also provide technical equipment as laid down in article 40 of the basketball england rule book. fines are imposed for missing items.