

Data Protection Agreement

Your membership data will be held on our secure club database system. This information will only be accessed by authorised club officers. Your data will only be used for the purposes of running CSNICC and communicating with club members.