

SQUARE UNITED CLUB RULES & CODE OF CONDUCT

Club Rules: Members, parent/guardians agree to abide by the rules of the club and the league in which their team participates in. Parents/guardians should refrain from showing any physical or verbal aggression towards Coaches, Referee's or Players during the match or at any time. Any breach of these rules will result in the member, parent/guardian being suspended from the club and not to attend games until further notice.

Conduct: Players and club members must follow the instructions of the coaches in charge. Misbehaviour will result in a warning to the member and parents will be informed in writing of such an occurrence.

Insurance: Square United members are to be fully covered before attending training or games. Contact our secretary to arrange insurance.

Games: We ask all Club members to conduct themselves in the correct manner when attending both home and away games and to represent Square United the best they can and respect other teams facilities / players / coaches.

Fees: The membership fee will be €50 per child plus €3 a game for referee payment.. If there are any circumstances where membership cannot be paid in full at the due date please contact the Club Secretary.
