CODE OF BEHAVIOUR

Social Media Usage

All members of Toome GAA shall adhere to the GAA's Social Media policy and guidelines (Available to download from Monaghan GAA.ie). When using social media sites such as Twitter, Facebook or Instagram in a personal capacity it is important to remember that when discussing GAA matters or posting GAA related content, all members are subject to the aforementioned policy and guidelines. Breaches of this policy can result in disciplinary action.

Disciplinary Procedures

1. The coach is responsible for discipline within his/her group and by speaking directly to the player can deal with minor breaches of the Code of Good Behaviour.
2. Should there be continuous breaches of the Code the coach will advise the parents /guardian.
3. In the case of a serious breach of indiscipline or continuous misbehaviour the coach should report the matter to an officer of Toome GAA Club who shall refer the matter to the Committee.
4. The Committee shall then appoint two officers to speak with the player and parents/guardians to try and resolve the matter.
5. Should no meaningful solution occur, the Committee may impose a suspension from the club, withdraw membership or in extreme cases expulsion. The Juvenile Committee reserve the right to suspend an individual for a serious breach of the Code of Good Behaviour.
6. Personal hearings will be granted to the player/parents/guardians by the Toome GAA Committee at all stages if sought or required.
