

Roscrea RFC

Code of conduct for players

- Always be on time for training, matches or meeting.
- Accept the referee's decision and let your captain or coach ask any relevant questions.
- Respect your opponent Treat all players as you would like to be treated. Do not bully or take advantage of any other player.
- At the end of a match always thank the match referee and your opponents.
- Winning and losing is part of sport. Win with humility – lose with dignity.
- As part of the team it is important that you attend training regularly and listen to your coach and help your team.
- Remember you are representing your team, club, family and the game of rugby.

Code of conduct for parents

- Remember, young people play rugby for their enjoyment, not only yours.
- Encourage your child to always play by the laws of the game.
- Teach young children that honest endeavour is as important as winning, so that the result of each game is accepted without disappointment.
- As a spectator do not use any profane language or harass referees, coaches or player.
- Do not publicly question the referee's judgement and never his honesty.
- Remember you and your child's contribution to the game of rugby are very important to the IRFU and be proud of your contribution.

Child welfare and age grade rugby

The Club will operate in line with the Irish rugby football union guidelines on child welfare and age grade rugby. A child welfare office has been appointed by the club.

Discipline

Where it is necessary to discipline any player or member the club has appointed a disciplinary committee to investigate and, where necessary, impose appropriate sanctions in line with the recommendations of the IRFU and the Leinster branch of the IRFU.
